Many insurance companies are now offering some form of coverage for preventive care and MNT with reimbursement for credentialed RDNs. In this session by Mandy Enright, MS, RDN, RYT, participants will assess the pros and cons of taking insurance, learn the processes for getting started with credentialing, benefits verification, and claim submissions. Attendees will receive information on resources and tools for reimbursement, and troubleshooting tips for common roadblocks encountered with insurance companies. This session will primarily focus on working with private pay insurance companies, while addressing some Medicare basics.

Learning Objectives

After completing this continuing education course, nutrition professionals should be able to:

1. Assess if accepting reimbursement is appropriate for business.
2. Establish Tax ID, NPI number, and CAQH log-in to start credentialing process.
3. Outline process for benefits verification and claim submissions.
4. Provide resources to providers for assistance with reimbursement matters.
5. Create solutions for time management and when services are not covered or expired for the year.
